ROCK STAR POET
VOL.II SOUL ON THE EDGE

The Rock Star Poet series continues as artist & author Jed Gustafson releases Volume II: Soul On The Edge. Introduced in 2004, the first installment titled 'Rock Star Poet' has had a warm reception since its publication in early 2006. Gustafson continues to examine life at its basic and other times convoluted stages. Different poems seem to dance with issues that can either make or break our lives depending on what we give up and what we take in.

Jed fronted, played bass and was the co-writer of material for the rock and roll band named Crazed Individuals. Jed is the owner/operator of RockDenver.com, he's a booking agent/promoter, and a published author.

Rock Star Poet invites you for a ride. Let it entice the eyes and invite the ears. In the end, Gustafson opens the exchange of information that reinforces the transformation of the humans pirit, life, and the way in which we grow; carefully reflecting upon those instances, those emotions, that make us whowe are.

Arnold Adoff once said "I really want a poem to sprout roses and spit bullets; this is the ideal combination.." and this is what Jed Gustafson's poems will do for you as you unfold the pages and let loose their meaning.
